

INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY
FOR INFECTIOUS DISEASES

GUIDE TO INFECTION CONTROL IN THE HEALTHCARE SETTING

The field of infection prevention has grown in importance over the last 30 years. The science of infection prevention, like others, is in constant evolution. With the collaboration of international leaders and front-line practitioners from around the world, we summarize the most up to date principles, interventions, and strategies for maximizing the reduction of healthcare associated infections.

Click here